"Whether this is the student's first time to be enrolled at the University or not, this program will benefit anyone contemplating enrolling at the University."

CETA NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The Tuscaloosa Ceta office is now accepting applications for summer employment 1983. Over 400 people will be hired from this area for this program this summer. For more information or to pick up an application, contact Dean Umphrey or Lucy Kubiszyn.

SHELTON SOFTBALL SIGNS SECOND BASEMAN

Dana Gibson, Central High School, has signed a softball scholarship with Shelton State Community College. A second baseman, Dana, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gibson of Tuscaloosa.

Look out for Shelton's new faculty-staff newsletter, PROFILES. PROFILES is designed to improve relations between faculty, staff of Shelton State Community College though focusing on various employees, programs of the college. The logo for PROFILES was designed by Bill Stringfellow and the drafting class at the Technical Division.

TECHNICAL TALK

The numerical control center will soon be the "State of the Art" for the entire south with the installation of a new $99,800 C&C control turning center. You hear of high technology all the time now. Well, Shelton State will be teaching it. Not all the equipment is in yet; more of it is on the way. According to Jack Moore in the machine shop, the entire department will be operational by Summer quarter. He and Melvin Corder are planning an open house at that time to show off all the new equipment. . . . Interested in learning the basics of car care? Howell Franks in the automotive department recently taught a two-hour class to the Widowed Person Service. According to Franks, cars are like people - they are all different. The mini-course included basic car care, emergency care on the road, procedure in case of major breakdown. Franks said communication between the repair shop and the car's owner is also basic. Franks suggested the possibility of a "do-it-yourself" course on car care this summer. If you or your club, church, or other organizations are interested in learning basic car care, contact Mr. Franks at the Technical Division. . . . The drafting class under the leadership of Bill Stringfellow has done a drafting survey of the college's property in Moundville as well as the Junior College property. Mr. Stringfellow says the purpose is to present the instructional program so that the college will benefit from the knowledge. . . . Judy Holland and Jackie Sims attended the Burroughs and Micro-Computer conference held at the University of Alabama recently.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama State Fire College will sponsor the Waterous Maintenance and Repair School April 4-5. This school will be of value to owners or operators of Waterous Fire Pumps. Students will have the opportunity to ask very specific questions regarding the construction and operation of all models of this pump. There will be actual "hands-on" instruction following the repair and overhaul portion of the program. Registration will begin at 8:15 a.m. on Monday, April 4.

FOLK FESTIVAL TUESDAY

Don't forget the Folk Festival on Tuesday, April 5. A number of student activities are planned for the morning with a costume contest scheduled at 12 noon in the auditorium. The Shelton State Alumni Association will sponsor a costume contest at 12 noon with $5 awarded to the two best entries. Other prizes will also be given for the best and most original costume. Any student, faculty or staff member may enter the contest.

RYAN CO-CHAIR$ MOUNDVILLE EASTER PAGEANT

Shelton faculty member Brenda Ryan was co-chairman for the 36th annual Easter pageant, "The Road to Calvary." Presented yearly in Moundville, the pageant also featured Phil Poole in the role of "Christus." Poole, 24, is a representative to the Alabama Legislature and the son of Victor Poole, Alabama State Board of Education.

DON'T MISS KATHRYN TUCKER WINDHAM AT THE FOLK FESTIVAL. A NOTED ALABAMA AUTHOR AND STORY-TELLER, MRS. WINDHAM WILL TELL GHOST TALES AT 10 a.m. IN THE JUNIOR COLLEGE AUDITORIUM. A RECEPTION WILL BE HELD IN MR. SUMNER'S OFFICE AFTERWARDS HONORING MRS.WINDHAM.

SOFTBALL NEWS

The Shelton State Women's softball team flexed its muscles this past week with a dramatic split with Auburn University. The team now sporting a 11-3 record also split games with the University of North Alabama and swept a doubleheader from Northwest Junior College this past week.

After Easter, coach Steve King's girls will play Wallace State Junior College Monday at Hanceville, Livingston University Tuesday in Tuscaloosa and Faulkner State in Bay Minette Thrusday. The week-end after Easter the team will travel to West Florida to play in a tournament Friday - Sunday featuring some of the top women's teams in the south.

MEN'S SOFTBALL TEAM

A men's softball team comprised of Shelton faculty members is being formed in time for summer league play. If you are interested in playing, contact Humphrey Lee.
